

RAI™

ADA FORM 2025

The Global Association of Risk Professionals (GARP) provides reasonable and appropriate testing accommodations for disabled candidates wishing to take the Risk and AI (RAI™) Certificate Exam. GARP defines an “accommodation” as any modification in the standard administration of the Exam. A candidate requesting special accommodations must document: a physical or mental impairment that significantly limits the candidate’s ability to perform a major life function, the current impact of the impairment, and how it affects the candidate’s ability to take the Exam under standard conditions, including a justification and unbiased objective of the requested accommodation.

THE PROCESS FOR REQUESTING SPECIAL ACCOMMODATIONS

1. Register for the RAI Exam.
2. Complete Section I: Candidate Information, and Section II Part I—Medical Verification by Candidate.
3. Complete Section II Part II—Medical Verification by Physician.

Please have a qualified physician or qualified/licensed professional who is familiar with the impact of your disability complete Part II of the form. Please include all relevant supporting documentation.

Be sure that GARP receives the application and supporting documents together no later than the deadlines listed to the right.

Late or incomplete applications will not be considered.

4. Email your completed application to ADA@garp.com.

You will receive confirmation of the receipt of your application via email about one month before your exam date, at which point GARP will begin the review of your special accommodations application.

5. GARP will review your application to ensure the requested accommodations can be granted. Once the accommodations are approved, you will receive an email with an official confirmation letter shortly thereafter. If GARP cannot grant your request, you will be notified within the letter.
6. The formal confirmation of accommodations approval letter will contain instructions on how to schedule your exam with the approved accommodations. It is imperative you reference this letter for instructions on how to proceed with scheduling your exam on or before the deadline.

Note to Deferral Candidates: If you have deferred or are thinking of deferring your exam, you must resubmit this application. Your accommodations, whether they were approved or not, will not automatically transfer over to the administration you are deferring into.

Returning ADA Candidates

If you are a returning candidate for the RAI Exam and have previously submitted documentation, and it is not more than two years old, you are not required to resubmit the entire form again. However, before scheduling a new exam attempt, please notify us via email (ADA@garp.com) of your request and only submit Section I of this application, as this will allow us to arrange accommodations for you with Pearson VUE.

Please be advised that candidates who have previously attempted the FRM or SCR Exams with Special Accommodations must submit a separate special accommodations application for the RAI Exam.

Note: Candidates who do not need Special Accommodations for medical reasons do not need to complete the ADA form.
